Krapina-Zagorje County

Krapina-Zagorje County is located in the northwest of Croatia, and belongs to the region of central Croatia. It constitutes a separate geographic area extending from the peaks of Mts. Macelj and Ivančica in the north to Mt. Medvednica in the east. The river Sutla, also marking the state border between Croatia and Slovenia, forms its western border, and the watershed of the Krapina and Lonja river basins forms its eastern border. The county borders correspond to the natural borders of the region of Lower Zagorje.

Klanjec

Klanjec is located in the northwest of the region of Hrvatsko zagorje, on the slopes of Cesarska gora (altitude 511 m), next to the Croatian-Slovenian border that runs along the river Sutla. The distance between this small town and the capital, Zagreb, is some 50 km. Klanjec is located in immediate vicinity of the Tuheljske Toplice spa and Zelenjak, the location of the monument to the Croatian national anthem. Sights: Franciscan Monastery and the Church of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Antun Augustinčić Gallery, the castles of Cesargrad and Novi dvori cesargradski, St. Florian's Chapel.

Kumrovec

Kumrovec is a town and municipality seat in the region of Hrvatsko zagorje. Located in the northwest of Krapina-zagorje County, in terms of economy, it gravitates towards Zagreb, which is 48 km away. Sights: Monument to the Croatian national anthem Surrounded by the ruins of the Cesargrad castle and the Chapel of Our Lady of Risvica, the monument to the Croatian anthem "Lijepa naša" sits at the entrance to the Kumrovec Municipality, on the Klanjec-Kumrovec road, in the important protected area of Zelenjak, framed by the wooded slopes of the Sutla River Canyon. The monument was erected in honour of the 100th anniversary of the Croatian national anthem, on 24 November 1935, by the Society of Brethren of the Croatian Dragon in memory of its composer, Antun Mihanović.

Kumrovec is home to the "Old Village" Museum (Ethno Village Kumrovec), a one-of-a-kind outdoor museum made up of authentic village houses from the turn of the 20th century, which have been kept in excellent condition. Visitors can see standing ethnology exhibitions depicting the traditional life at the end of the 19th century.
